

America This Morning

Half Hour - Weekdays 4:30AM

SHOW INFO

ABC's "America This Morning" is the top-rated, early-morning network news program that presents the latest news, business, weather, and sports reports of the day. The program is divided into timed segments, allowing ABC affiliates to integrate their news coverage into network coverage during the early-morning hours.

Anchored by Diane Macedo, "America This Morning" covers breaking news from around the world and across the country. The broadcast also provides a pre-dawn update on consumer news in the "America's Money" segment, and the latest in sports from ESPN News.

The broadcast was previously named "World News This Morning" and was renamed "America This Morning" in November 2006. It premiered July 5, 1982.
