The annual CMA Awards honors country music's top performers, songwriters, record producers and music video directors, as determined by the more than 7,000 industry professional members of CMA, which was the first trade organization formed to promote an individual genre of music in 1958. The show features performances from top country music stars as well as up-and-coming new artists airing live from the Bridgestone Arena in Nashville, Tennessee.

2015 Hosts
Brad Paisley
Carrie Underwood

Production Company
Country Music Association

Executive Producer
Robert Deaton